Sr. No.	Title of the Book	Author	Synopsis
1	The Black Book	Orhan Pamuk	Pamuk's "The Black Book" is the densest of his novels, and probes the mind of a man in the middle of a mystery with startling perception. The actual plot of the novel is paper thin; Galip goes home one day to see his wife gone, and his famous columnist cousin Celal missing as well.
2	The Happy Prince and Other Stories	Oscar Wilde	The Happy Prince by Oscar Wilde is the story of a statue, the Happy Prince, covered with gold and many fine jewels. It sits overlooking the city. One day, a swallow passing through seeks shelter under the statue and discovers the prince is not happy, but sad.
3	The Da Vinci Code	Dan Brown	The Da Vinci Code follows "symbologist" Robert Langdon and cryptologist Sophie Neveu after a murder in the Louvre Museum in Paris causes them to become involved in a battle between the Priory of Sion and Opus Dei over the possibility of Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene having had a child together.
4	Revenge	K.T McCaffrey	Susan Furlong, a thirty-year-old, is obsessed with her desire for revenge against the man who raped her twelve years earlier. But J. P. Murray, a powerful businessman with influential friends in 'the natural party of government', is not to be the only victim of Susan's vengeance. Getting back the daughter she conceived as a result of the rape becomes her goal. All those who stand in her way, who try to silence her, to keep her story from the media will suffer.
5	The Pillars of Earth	Ken Follett	The Pillars of the Earth is set against a backdrop of war, religious strife and power struggles which tears lives and families apart. In that time, there rises a magnificent Cathedral in Kingsbridge.
6	Dubai	Robin Moore	Lieutenant Colonel James Fitzroy Lodd is a modern day soldier of fortune whose misinterpreted Arab leanings have cost him his Army career yet earned him the protection of Shaikh Rashid, ruler of the tiny oil shajhdom of Dubai. Lodd orchestrates some high risk business ventures guaranteed to parlay an Army pension into very high stakes: the smuggling of gold across the Arabian Sea to Bombay, the conversion of five hundred million Petro dollars into Arab control of the US communications media, and a desperate attempt to break an international oil cartel that could cost Lodd everything... including the very beautiful woman that he loves.
7	Finding Calcutta: What Mother Teresa Taught Me about Meaningful Work and Service	Mary Poplin	Mary Poplin, after experiencing a newfound awakening to faith, sent a letter to Calcutta asking if she could visit Mother Teresa and volunteer with the Missionaries of Charity. She received a response saying, "You are welcome to share in our works of love for the poorest of the poor." So in the spring of 1996, Poplin spent two months in Calcutta as a volunteer. There she observed Mother Teresa's life of work and service to the poor, participating in the community's commitments to simplicity and mercy.
8	Masquerade	Gayle Lynds	Liz Sansborough has no recollection of her past as a CIA agent; no idea what her future holds. For her, there is only the present...and the chilling knowledge that the world's most lethal assassin has set his sights on her. When your only link to your identity is a stranger who claim to be lover?
9	Triage- Casualties of Love and Sex	Margaret Mascarenhas	In this evocative collection of poetry, flash memoir and sketches, Margaret Mascarenhas challenges still prevalent myths about romantic love, treating it as a medical emergency, whose obsessive nature transcends gender and sexual orientation.
10	Vamona Navelcar- An Artist of Three Continents	Anne Ketteringham	This book chronicles the story of the Goan artist Vamona Navelcar and his life lived in Portugal, Mozambique and Goa, on the west coast of India.
11	Eco Culture Goa Paradigm	Vinayak Vishnu Khedekar	Eco-culture is based on the agricultural cycle, which is co-related to the local nature and environment and influenced by the cultural consciousness of society living in that area. Study of those performing annual rituals, presenting artistic shows or celebrating folk festivals signifies and provides insights into the elements of eco-culture.
